The bylaws give a lot of ideas, but basically states that "what outreach does should depend on local needs" (pg 14) The local needs have been more than adequately covered by other subcommittees. OLD BUSINESS:

- David S: It has been rumored that David is working, It is not a high paying job, or a career type of job. Mike S. is still wanting to verify that it is indeed David S. that is working at this place. The problem with perusing the judgment is that it costs about $100.00 to $150.00 to proceed with the garnishment, and with these types of jobs, David is likely to quit & just go get another job once the garnishment is in effect. EASC would have to re-file once we found out where his next job is at. It was brought up that the EASC choose to pursue this judgment to re-coupe the funds David owes. Mike will verify the employment and pursue the judgment.
- MOTION made by EASC Literature Committee member.
 - Friendly amendment: The literature Office is asking for a 10% increase in order to remain Self supporting and compensate for an increase in Postage from Lone Star Regions Service Office.
 - Intent: To help the literature office remain independent as a service to the Eastern Area.
- Take back to the groups
- EASC Intent to fill:
 - Regional Committee Member (RCM). As stated in the by-laws Section VIII. paragraph "D". This is a 2 year term, the person filling this position would be required to hold that position for the next 1 & 1/2 years. See Section XII Paragraph "A": of the attached bylaws (e-mail attachment) for further duties and requirements

NEW BUSINESS:

- MOTION made by EASC Outreach Chair
 - Motion: To change the bylaws and disband the Outreach Subcommittee.
 - Intent: The original premise of the Outreach subcommittee has been lost over the years. The bylaws give a lot of ideas, but basically states that "what outreach does should depend on local needs" (pg 14) The local needs have been more than adequately covered by other subcommittees.
